

Mobile Integrated Healthcare Practitioner Course

The next Mobile Healthcare Practitioner course will be held May 30 – April 11, 2018. This course is the core didactic and clinical components for an urban model Mobile Integrated Healthcare program. Clinical rotations can be done following classroom content and will be coordinated specifically with each agency.

Core educational content:

- Introduction to Mobile Integrated Healthcare Programs
- MIHP Development & Implementation
- Motivational Interviewing
- The Clinical Medicine of MIHP
- Scenarios and Case Studies
- Program Modules:
 - High Utilizers
 - Congestive Heart Failure
 - Behavioral Health
 - Diabetes
 - Hospice

Clinical Rotations:

- Mental Health Mobile Crisis outreach Team
- MIH Field Practitioner
- Hospice
- Critical Care Paramedic Team
- CHF Clinic
- Diabetes Clinic
- ER Social Work

Course Information:

When: April 30 – May 11, 2018

Where: MedStar Mobile Healthcare, Classroom A240
2900 Alta Mere Drive
Fort Worth, TX 76116

Content: 80 Hours Classroom, Monday – Friday, 8a – 5p

Target Audience

- Practitioners with a minimum 2 years as EMT/Paramedic or higher
- Agency/Program Managers and directors

Prerequisite

- Base knowledge of entry level paramedicine according to the National Emergency Medicine Services Educational Standard curriculum

For more information contact Desiree Partain at DPartain@medstar911.org

